STEPHEN CREAMER FACING STATE PRISON SENTENCE

On October 29, 2019, Stephen Creamer pled guilty to failing to register as a sex offender, a felony violation of Penal Code section 290(b).

On December 6, 2004, Stephen Creamer was convicted of charges that require him to register as a sex offender in the State of California pursuant to Penal Code section 290. His prior convictions also constitute “strike” offenses under California’s “three strikes” sentencing scheme. On February 2, 2019, it was discovered that Mr. Creamer was out of compliance with his registration requirements.

Due to his prior criminal convictions, Mr. Creamer faces a sentence of up to 25 years to life in the state prison. He will have the opportunity to argue for a lesser sentence in court. Sentencing will occur on December 4 in Department 23 of the Superior Court of California, County of Madera.
