GANG MEMBER FACING 10 YEARS AND 4 MONTHS IN STATE PRISON

On December 6, 2019, the Madera Special Investigation Unit did a probation search on a known gang member in Chowchilla. Officers located numerous assault rifles, a handgun, a shotgun, over a pound of methamphetamine and over a pound of marijuana. The Madera County District Attorney's Office charged him for all these crimes. On December 12, 2019, that gang member pled guilty to every charge and special allegation. He faces 10 years, 4 months in the state prison for his plea to all of the charges.

Gangs thrive on notoriety. As a result, we do not publish the names of gangs or gang members.
