GANG MEMBER CONVICTED OF MURDER AT JURY TRIAL

On December 19, 2019, after a six week jury trial, a Madera County jury convicted a Madera gang member of first degree murder, the special circumstances of killing by an active street gang member, as well as gang and gun enhancements. The murder took place on August 19, 2014.

The great work of the Madera Police Department Detective Unit resulted in this case being solved.

The Defendant will be sentenced to life without the possibility of parole as a result of his conduct.

Gangs thrive on notoriety. As a result, we do not publish the names of gang members nor the gangs themselves.
